

FISCAL NOTE

HB 399 - SB 937

February 13, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the social security number of a child which is filed with a local Title IV-D child support office to be treated as confidential information which is not open to public inspection. Also, requires the reported gross annual income be supported with the individual's most recent federal tax return. Increase from 10 to 15 days the amount of time for updating changes in required information.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

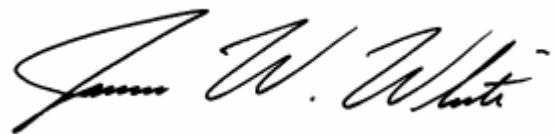

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Any cost associated with template changes to the automated child support system (TCSES) will not be significant and can be absorbed within the existing resources of the Department of Human Services.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".
